JORDAN BARDELLA PROMOTED FRENCH SOVEREIGNTY BY THREATENING THE END OF "EUROPEAN CIVILIZATION"

Jordan Bardella repeatedly brandishes, in his speech, the threat of letting European civilization die if migration is identified at this pace "Our civilization can die, if we do not now and quickly regain control of our migration policy"

He thus questions his current and potential electorate during these European elections, on the risk of "losing European civilization", in total opposition to the stability pact and migration, voted, recently by the European Parliament last April 11, 2024, after nine years of negotiations and debates.

An extract from the press release from the National Rally Party sent to supporters explains "As we are at the dawn of a decisive vote, in which the entire people will have to choose the destiny they want for France, Jordan Bardella called on each and every one to mobilize: we cannot let Emmanuel Macron have a free hand to implement his project of enlarging Europe to 37 States, deindexing pensions, destroying unemployment insurance, rising prices gas and migratory submergence. To abstain is to vote for Macron; to disperse on lists which cannot win is to strengthen Macron. " The press release summarizes the content of Jordan Bardella's 30-minute speech by targeting the party's favorite subject which is "Control of French and European borders in the face of the migratory challenge, protection in the face of unfair competition, patriotism in public procurement for benefit in particular our farmers, support for businesses in the face of ever more absurd inflation standards" as well as the sensitive subject (Tres national) of inflation and the purchasing power of the French.

"Restrictive standards imposed by the Brussels Commission, reform of European price-setting rules to regain purchasing power: our ideas are in the majority in the country and can obtain, on June 9, the most resounding victory. » and to conclude in a very sovereigntist manner, advocating a strong France within Europe and not the European Union. Governing France's national affairs "As Jordan Bardella said, never apologize for being proud to be French. On June 9, don't give up anything and have the patriotic reflex: on June 9, vote, have people vote, for the only list capable of beating Emmanuel Macron, and of organizing the start!" Thus proclaims the press release from the RN Party (National Rally) and thus imports the subject of the European elections onto the national table, as opposition to the presidential majority in France.

VALERIE HAYER THE CHALLENGER (16%) ALSO HAD HER LAST CAMPAIGN CONVENTION WITH P.M. GABRIEL ATTAL
Meanwhile, the challenger of Jordan Bardella, who according to the polls, with 16% of voting intentions according to Elabe, Valérie Hayer, the head of the list of the presidential majority (Renaissance, MoDem, Horizons, UDI, Radical Party), also gave its last campaign meeting, Saturday, in Aubervilliers (Seine-Saint-Denis), under the slogan "Let's wake up! Let's refuse to succumb to demagoguery and simplism! It's up to us to start the fight", she launched alongside Gabriel Attal, who came as reinforcement, from his position as Prime Minister, also putting at the service of the fragile candidate, her strong capital of sympathy and among the favorite political figures of the French with a popularity rating of 39% (Ifop survey, JDD, May 15, 2024).
